Esko 192 pt

Eskorte is a compact typeface with serious yet personal appearance, tall x-height, and relatively small capitals with plenty of space for accents.
Eskorte means business. The type family was designed to fit many purposes, from corporate to casual. Lifestyle publications, business reports, or identity work, one of Eskorte’s many facets will make it shine. The roman conveys a more sober tone, only occasionally revealing its quirks. The italics are an expression of joie de vivre and make it a favourite for large, dominant headlines.

A similar fate may await the monstrous placards, posters, and slips which are plastered on the hoardings and the corner houses of this immense metropolis; but their indefinite multiplication by means of the printing press prevents their common ruin.

The majority of the announcements to which a circulation so enormous is given are of a practical and substantial nature, and have reference to our daily desires, to our nightly amusements, and to articles which have been lost and found.

Our age has one gigantic advantage over its predecessors; we are a people of advertisers. Malicious bill-stickers may paste over the advertisement placard in one district, but it reappears in another. A few graffiti may defy the effacing fingers of time, whereas millions of such legends are washed away, rubbed out,
